Several possibilities – are there two men named Nicolas Gurulé?

- One married to Maximiliana and then Marteliana
- The other married to Susana and then Morinazea –this would match Celestino being born to Susana and then appearing in the 1930 census
- Nicolas really had four women. First married to Maximiliana who can't have children, then has four children by Suzana, then marries Marteliana, and then marries the wife who appears in the 1930 census.
